

Camp Code of Conduct:

This is a Christian group. We are jealous for the impression that we leave behind. It is a direct reflection upon our Lord, so our goal is to be the best we can be...not to do the least we can just to get by.

- 1. Counselors: Your room counselor is responsible for you and must always know where you are! Always respect and obey your counselor.
- 2. Camp Schedule: Be present and on time for everything. Observe all scheduled times, especially wake-up and lights out!
- 3. Camp Boundaries: Never leave the camp grounds. Your room is NOT a social gathering. No one is allowed in the opposite gender's room at any time. No one is allowed in your room except by counselor's permission. Casual gathering places are by the pool, lobbies, cafeteria, and rec fields during "Free Time."
- 4. Companions: NO "PDA" – Public or Private Displays of Affection. You are not here for that.
- 5. Clothing: Be comfortable, but conservative. No short-shorts or miniskirt dresses. Swim suits are for swimming only. Wear cover-ups to and from the pool/lake area/ Guys must wear shirts at all times except for when at the pool/lake. Modest 1-piece suits (Girls: no bikini or French Cut, Guys: no speedos)
- 6. Contraband: NO alcohol, tobacco or non-prescription drugs. NO electronic players, radios, TVs, or video games. NO fireworks, weapons, water balloons, squirts guns (or related items). NO off-campus deliveries allowed. No contraband will be returned after orientation.
